

Macquarie Childcare Centre Privacy Statement

At Macquarie Childcare Centre, protecting the privacy of you and your family is important to us. We take our legal obligations very seriously.

From 12th March 2014, changes to the Australian privacy laws come into force. These law changes impose new and stricter obligations on organisations that collect, handle and disclose personal information.

Personal information is fundamentally anything that identifies, or could reasonably identify you or your child. It can include your name, contact details, occupation or other private details and information so we've updated our Privacy Policy to ensure that we continue to comply with the privacy laws in how we manage and protect your personal information.

If you're interested in more details on how we collect and handle your personal information please take a moment to read our Private Information Disclosure Statement and our updated Privacy Policy

Macquarie Childcare Centre

Privacy Disclosure Statement

Macquarie Childcare Centre and its related entities, collect, disclose and use your personal information to assist us in providing effective early childhood education and care.

Apart from the information that you provide us, we may collect personal information that is available from public sources or from third parties that provide us with marketing information.

Due to the nature of our service, we may be required to provide your personal information to government agencies, our related companies and to people that we outsource functions to, for example, educational program support services or payment processing agencies.

If you choose not to provide some or all of the personal information we require, it may affect our ability to provide care.

You can ask us not to use your information to promote our services by following the procedure outlined in the Macquarie Childcare Centre Privacy Policy which contains information on how:

- to update your preferences about the marketing and promotional material we send to you;
- to request access to and seek correction of the personal information we hold about you;
- to make a privacy complaint.
- Our Administration Assistant is our privacy officer and will assist you with any complaint, access or correction.

- a) All personal and sensitive information in electronic form is kept in secure data bases that can only be accessed by staff who have the delegated authority to do so.
- b) Documentation that may be provided to the service at any time is kept in locked filing cabinets with key access. Such access can only be gained through the services approved provider.
- c) If you are considering sending us any personal information by standard email, please be aware that the information may be less secure in transit. We are required by law to take steps to protect the security of personal information once it comes into our possession only.
- d) The security measures that we put in place to protect your information are audited from time to time to ensure that the service observes best practice and is compliant with all applicable aspects of the Privacy Act.

6) Information access and correction

- a) Subject to any exceptions under the Privacy Act, if you have provided us with personal information, you have a right to request to access or correct it. If you want to access or correct your personal information you should contact the office and put your request in writing.
- b) Once you have made your request for access or correction, we will respond within a reasonable period. In some cases we may ask you to pay an administrative fee to cover costs associated with your request for access. To assist us in responding to your request, please include as much detail as possible about the particular personal information that you are seeking to access or correct

(in order to help us locate it) and, if applicable, how you would like to access the information.

- c) We will provide you with a copy of or details of your personal information wherever it is possible and practicable to do so. Otherwise, we will work with you to find a mutually agreed alternative.
- d) If after exploring all options, we refuse to correct or give you access to your personal information, we will provide you with a written notice that sets out the reasons for the refusal (except where it would be unreasonable to do so), the mechanisms available to you to complain about the refusal and any other matters that the Privacy Act requires us to address.

7) Questions, concerns and complaints

- a) If you want to make a complaint about a breach of your privacy by our service, you can contact us at the office during working hours. All complaints will be investigated by an appropriately qualified and senior representative however we may engage an external person to conduct the investigation independently. We will endeavour to resolve your complaint as quickly as possible, and in any event within 30 days. If your complaint takes longer to resolve, we will keep you informed of our progress with the investigation including how we propose to resolve your complaint and what, if any, corrective measures will be put in place.
- b) If you require further information about our privacy complaints handling process or the progress or outcome of any privacy complaint investigation, please contact the Privacy Officer through the office.
- c) If you are not satisfied with our handling or resolution of your complaint, you can lodge a complaint with the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner ("OAIC"). For more information about making a complaint to the OAIC, visit <http://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy/making-a-privacy-complaint>.

8) Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will make any changes available to all families using our services. You can also obtain a copy of the most current Privacy Policy by either emailing or writing to the Privacy Officer at the service.
